Environment Institute of Australia and New Zealand

Environmental Careers Workshop | Webinar Series

Looking to jump-start your career in the environment industry? Wanting to nail that first job application?

EIANZ invites you to attend a series of webinars for prospective environmental professionals, on preparing for entry into the environmental industry. The webinar series will cover topics such as job search strategies, networking techniques and successful tips for CV's, cover letters and interviews.

Webinar 1 | Monday 30th March 11am – 12pm (AEDST)

- Planning: job search strategies and understanding the job market

Webinar 2 | Wednesday 1st April 11am – 12pm (AEDST)

- Preparing: CVs, cover letters and key selection criteria

Webinar 3 | Friday 3rd April 11am – 12pm (AEDST)

- Present: tips for interviews, networking and LinkedIn

This event will be facilitated by Louise Millar-Hoffmann
Louise is an eco-career advocate and workforce development specialist in Australia. She has multiple qualifications in Career Development, Environmental Advocacy, Training and Development and Civil/Environmental Engineering.