

Governance

The CCSIS is considering governance in the context of:

- Internal due diligence, e.g. business planning, financial management etc.;
- External requirements for its initiatives, such as development of professionals and practitioners skills, recognition systems and accreditation in Climate Change management; and
- The institutional frameworks established through legislative development in the Climate Change field.

We have developed and are using a detailed strategy and action plan.