

STATE OF NATIVE ANIMALS IN THE ACT

8:55 am Welcome statement

9:00 am Issues concerning native animals in the ACT between the years 2000 to 2011
Richard Sharp richard.s@ngnvironmental.com.au

9:20 am The Atlas of Living Australia and native animals in the ACT
Peter Doherty Peter.Doherty@csiro.au

9:40 am How to use the Atlas of Living Australia to engage with the ACT community about native animals and capture new data
Peter Doherty Peter.Doherty@csiro.au & Peter Brenton Peter.Brenton@csiro.au

10:00 am Future of Data Capture – support for advanced monitoring and measurement of on-ground activities and reporting of resultant outcomes
Peter Brenton Peter.Brenton@csiro.au

10:20 am Morning tea

10:40 am Conservation status and management of freshwater fishes in the ACT
Danswell Starrs danswell.starrs@anu.edu.au

11:00 am How to identify the wildlife in the ACT vulnerable to cat predation and what are the required policy responses
Kathy Eyles kathy.eyles@anu.edu.au

11:20 am Status, distribution and conservation requirements of platypus in the ACT with reference also to the Australian water-rat
Melody Serena / Geoff Williams platypus.apc@westnet.com.au

11:40 am Pink-tailed Worm-lizard conservation in an urban context
Robert Speirs RSpeirs@biosis.com.au

12:00 pm Lunch

1:00 pm Threatened Species Commissioner, actions and priorities for 2015 – What this means for the ACT

Gregory Andrews Gregory.Andrews@environment.gov.au

1:20 pm Cats (their impact and the need for containment of domestic cats)

Briony Papps campaign@conservationcouncil.org.au

1:40 pm New Nature Conservation Act and how it will address native animals

Clare Henderson director@conservationcouncil.org.au

2:00 pm Canberra's small mammals: where have they all gone?

Don Fletcher Don.Fletcher@act.gov.au

2:20 pm Afternoon Tea

2:40 pm Effect of management on the abundance of native mammals

Claire Wimpenny Claire.Wimpenny@act.gov.au

3:00 pm Results of an arboreal mammal spotlighting survey in 2014 in Namadgi National Park

Ben Stevenson Ben.Stevenson@act.gov.au

3:20 pm Influence of the Golden Sun Moth on planning and development in the Canberra area

David Hogg dhogg@homemail.com.au

3:40 pm Golden Sun Moth at Majura Parkway, its habitat translocation and the importance of Chilean Needle Grass

Wil Allen wil.allen@smec.com

4:00 pm Drinks at the Fellows Bar