

- Attending court?
- Trying to avoid court altogether?
- Want to improve the calibre of your expert opinions?
- How would your work be viewed by a court?

EIANZ NSW DIVISION PRESENTS

Professional Development FOR Environmental Experts

Friday 27 May 2016
8.30am - 4.30pm

Clayton Utz
Bligh Street, Sydney

The course includes

- Being an expert witness
- Writing and commissioning expert reports
- Providing and interpreting expert advice
- Ethical responsibilities

Who would benefit from this course?

- Environmental Managers from government and industry
- Environmental consultants
- People commissioning environmental specialists
- Developers
- Regulators

The program will feature

- An introduction to Court room evidence
- Ethical responsibilities of an environmental expert
- The role of an environmental expert
- Preparation of expert reports - core principles and context
- Open Forum: Environmental expertise in practice - Introduction to the hypothetical

The program will be delivered by leaders in the environmental and legal professions including:

- Justice Brian Preston
Chief Judge, Land and Environment Court
- Dr Fabian Sack
Director, Sustainably Pty Ltd
- Damon Roddis
Environmental Specialist, Pacific Environment
- Ms Fiona Gainsford
Principal, Gainsford Environmental Consulting
- Mr Nick Thomas
Partner, Clayton Utz
- Mr Nick Eastman
Barrister

Certified environmental practitioner?

This course will count for 7 hours towards your Professional Development requirements. An initiative of EIANZ.

Environment Institute of Australia and
New Zealand Inc.

CLAYTON UTZ