Ethics Forum

A short workshop to examine integrity and the environment profession, what it is, how it can be put at risk, and the consequences of integrity failure.

- The public standing of the environment profession is founded in the integrity of its members
- Integrity is founded in ethics
- Good practice environmental management is founded on ethics and sound professional conduct

Want to know more? Want to explore what integrity is, how it is built, and how it can easily be put at risk?

As an environmental practitioner - Your integrity matters!

We will also be touching on Liking and Linking – the ethics of Social media

Speakers

Alan Chenoweth – Senior Principal, Cardno Chenoweth Environment, Chair – CEnvP Board

Jon Womersley – Principal – Womersley Environmental Management, EIANZ Past President

This event is suitable for those looking to apply for the Certified Environmental Practitioner scheme and also for those who are new practitioners, students and recent graduates. Ethics is relevant to all of us.
