

and

are pleased to present the 2017 Environmental Practitioners' Workshop

Sharing Experiences in Environmental Practice

Location: Leederville Oval (Medibank Stadium)
246 Vincent Street, Leederville

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

This workshop aims to be of interest to the entire environmental practitioner community including students, community conservation and landcare groups; professionals from all industries; regulators, local government and the public sector.

Presentation Topics Include

- Biodiversity, restoration, rehabilitation, and offsetting
- Waste and contamination
- Climate Change – impacts, adaptation, litegration into existing practices
- Citizen science and community involvement in environmental initiatives
- Community engagement, transparency and right to know
- Sustainable development and rating schemes
- Legislation, Regulation, Policy and Planning
- Bushfire Management
- Integrated Resource Management (inc Traditional Land Management)
- Solutions to environmental problems – simple to technological advancement
- Industry (Agribusiness, Fisheries, Renewable Energy, Mining, Transport, Water)
- Limitations and solutions in environmental risk assessment

Have an idea for a topic not on this list? Email us to let us know. All topics will be considered

Submit abstracts (max 200 words) via email to epnwaworkshop@gmail.com by 31 January 2017

Please share with anyone who may be interested

For more information, find us on  and  or contact us via epnwa2016@gmail.com