What exactly is EIANZ?

The Environment Institute of Australia and New Zealand is the peak professional association for environmental practitioners. The Institute's principal objectives are to promote environmental knowledge and advance ethical and competent practice whilst facilitating interaction amongst environmental professionals.

Heard of Engineers Australia or CPA? Ever thought 'What about my industry?' Well, EIANZ is your professional industry association. Becoming a member of EIANZ allow individuals in the environment industry to demonstrate professionalism, accountability, competence and ethical environmental practices through abiding with the Institutes own Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct.

EIANZ has Australian and New Zealand Chapters. The Australian chapter has divisions in all states including Victoria.

EIANZ Victoria Division runs various conferences, workshops and event for professional development.

What is the EIANZ SYP Network?

The EIANZ Students and Young Professionals (SYP) Network is part of the EIANZ Victoria Division. SYP is the official organisation for environmental Students and Young Professionals in South East Queensland.

A STUDENT is anyone who is a student irrespective of age

A YOUNG PROFESSIONAL is

-Any person who is under 30 years of age OR

-Any person who has less than 5 years of work experience.

Whether you are at the start of your study, part way through or at the commencement of your professional life, the SYP offers excellent benefits to aid you in your environmental career.

Best of all it's FREE!

Who can join?

Anyone meeting the criteria of a Student or Young Professional is welcome to join by registering your details – you don't have to be a member of EIANZ to register.

Benefits include:

- Invitations to SYP career and network events
- Meetings and access to forums discussing the latest environmental issues, news, policy, and practices
- Updates on the Certified Environmental Practitioner Program (CEnvP)
- Copies of the Victorian Division quarterly news letter
