

SCHEDULE

STATEMENT OF PURPOSES

1. The Primary Purposes of the Institute are to:
  - (a) facilitate interaction among environmental professionals.
  - (b) promote environmental knowledge and awareness, and
  - (c) advance ethical and competent environmental practice.

2. In order to better achieve the Primary Purposes of the Institute, but without limiting their generality, the Institute has adopted Secondary Purposes as follows:
  - (a) to provide a forum for and to otherwise assist the discussion, consideration and advancement of professional environmental practice;
  - (b) to convene and hold seminars, lecture and conferences in relation to professional environmental practice;
  - (c) to produce, publish and distribute reports, journals, books, papers and other informative material in relation to professional environmental practice;
  - (d) to encourage and develop awareness, discussion and consideration of professional environmental practice amongst the associated professions and the community at large in Australia, in New Zealand and abroad;
  - (e) to liaise, consult, work in conjunction and make arrangements and contracts with any individuals, trusts, corporations, foundations, firms, partnerships, associations, societies, institutions, organisations and authorities and with the government of the Commonwealth of Australia or of any locality, municipality, State or Territory thereof, with the government of New Zealand or of any district or region thereof, or with any foreign government, organisation or agency or any international body, for carrying out the purposes of the Institute;
  - (f) to raise, borrow and secure payment of money by any lawful means and to solicit, receive, enlist and accept financial and other support from individuals, trusts, corporations, foundations, firms, partnerships, associations, societies, institutions, organisations and authorities and from the government of the Commonwealth of Australia or of any locality, municipality, State or Territory thereof, from the government of New Zealand or of any district or region thereof, or from any foreign government, organisation or agency or any international body for carrying out the purposes of the Institute;
  - (g) to grant, give and make available money and facilities to any individual, trust, corporation, firm, partnership, association, society, institution, organisation or authorities or to the government of the Commonwealth of Australia or of any locality, municipality, State or Territory thereof, or to the government of New Zealand or of any district or region thereof, for carrying out the purposes of the Institute;
  - (h) to encourage and organise social and recreational activities amongst Members of the Institute and other persons interested in the purposes of the Institute.