WHO ARE THE EIANZ-SEQ SECP NETWORK?

We are part of the Environment Institute of Australia and New Zealand (EIANZ), catering for Students and Early Career Professionals (SECP) within the South East Queensland area.

The SECP Network is an informal group set up to help share information between student and early career environmental professionals in South East Queensland. The role of the SECP is to:

“Provide students and early career professionals in the environment profession with opportunities to network and develop their professional skills”.

WHAT IS THE EIANZ?

The Environment Institute of Australia and New Zealand (EIANZ) is the peak professional body for environmental practitioners.

Its primary purpose is to:

- Advance ethical and competent environmental practice
- Promote environmental knowledge and awareness
- Facilitate interaction among environmental practitioners

WHO QUALIFIES AS AN SECP?

Student - A person, irrespective of age, who is an enrolled student interested in environmental matters.

Early Career Professional - A person working in any aspect of the environment profession who has less than 5 years of working experience.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF BEING ASSOCIATED WITH SECP?

- Invitations to fun and informative events specifically designed for SECPs (eg career events, casual social networking events)
- Meeting and networking with other SECPs studying or working in the environment industry
- Opportunities to contribute to and share information about environmental issues such as policy, practice and professional certification.

Do I have to be an EIANZ member to join the SEQ-SECP Network?

NO. The network is designed to provide access to networking, events and opportunities for all environmental students and early career professionals, regardless of their EIANZ membership status. However, the SECP Network offers additional benefits to those SECPs who are EIANZ members, these include:

- The Mentoring Program where you can build a relationship and receive advice from an environmental professional to enhance your career prospects and knowledge of the environment industry
- A chance to contribute to the direction of the Institute by having your voice heard at EIANZ executive meetings
- Financial discounts to EIANZ events
- Ability to place an ad in our newsletter to 4,500 looking for employment
- Full members qualify for postnominals of MEIANZ.

The EIANZ is YOUR professional association! Becoming a member of EIANZ allows individuals in the environment profession to demonstrate accountability, competence and ethical environmental practice by following the EIANZ Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct.

For more information about becoming an EIANZ member go to www.eianz.org
