

RICHARD SHARP FEIANZ CENVP
SENIOR CONSULTANT |
ECOLOGY & HERITAGE
PARTNERS PTY LTD
Joined the Institute in 1990

"The most important lesson [of my career] has been to continuously update and develop skills through relevant professional development"

Environment Institute of Australia and
New Zealand Inc.

Celebrating 30 years 1987 - 2017

What prompted you to join EIANZ?

I wanted to be a member of a professional association that facilitated networking amongst environmental practitioners

What have you found most rewarding about a career in the environment sector?

The opportunity to provide accurate, up-to-date, objective, impartial and unbiased advice to others concerning environmental protection matters

What is the biggest change that you have seen in the environment profession over the years?

The shift away from old-style natural and cultural resources management into fashionable sustainability and adaptive management

What are some of the most important lessons you have learned (so far) over the course of your career?

The most important lesson has been to continuously update and develop skills through relevant professional development

What do you see as EIANZ's key role in the environment sector?

Maintaining the credibility and relevance of the profession

What advice would you give a colleague thinking of joining EIANZ?

Join now!