EIANZ 30th Year Anniversary Dinner

Please join us in celebrating EIANZ's 30th anniversary for a dinner and presentation from David Cole on "the state of our profession".

David will use his experiences at the forefront of the environmental profession over the last three decades to give an insightful and entertaining snapshot of where we've come from and where we might be heading.

When: Friday 25th August 2017

Time: 6:30pm start

Where: Adelaide Rowing Club
Montefiore Rd, Adelaide SA

Price EIANZ members: $79
Non-members: $99
(Cost includes canapes, 2 course meal and drinks)

Enjoy a unique opportunity to network with EIANZ members both old and new.

The SA Division's AGM will be held at 5:30, immediately before the dinner.

RSVP: via EIANZ Events webpage/SA Division

DAVID COLE

David is an environmental and natural resources lawyer with extensive experience in advising both the public and private sectors across Australia. David has particular expertise in the development and implementation of environmental compliance systems for state governments, mining and resources companies, energy organisations and conservation trusts.

His knowledge of the social and environmental impacts of proposed infrastructure and resource developments on natural systems including World Heritage-listed properties is keenly sought by clients. David is also well known for his expertise in environmental planning (including environmental impact assessment), pollution response and management including contaminated land, water resources and environmental due diligence.

His clients have included numerous State and Commonwealth government departments and agencies, universities, mining & resources companies, petroleum producers, general industry, philanthropic organisations and individuals.
