Thanks to our venue provider:

Cultural heritage management is a complex, dynamic and highly specialised field. In this interactive Q&A style session, we bring together three practitioners working in different areas of the profession to share their experiences and perspectives as heritage practitioners, regulators and service providers. With a wealth of knowledge across cultural heritage management issues and opportunities, this session provides attendees with an opportunity to discuss a variety of matters including:

- The new Heritage Act 2017
- The Aboriginal Heritage Act (as amended in 2016)
- Understanding heritage management processes and requirements
- Working with Registered Aboriginal Parties.
