ABOUT

Jade Wikaira, BPlan (Hons), MBA

Jade affiliates to Ngati Tūwharetoa, Te Whānau-ā-Apanui and works for Boffa Miskell in the Wellington office as Kaiarataki / Strategic Advisor Māori. Her role includes providing advice on the cultural integrity of projects. She has a planning and policy background.

Jade presents a course on Planning for Māori Values to planning and policy practitioners around the country. She also convenes the Wellington branch of Papa Pounamu, a group of resource management professionals with a focus on Māori issues.

She is passionate about providing quality cultural outcomes and solutions.

PROGRAM

We are all involved in impact assessments but how do you approach the cultural parts? What are some of the opportunities and challenges?

Environmental practitioners regularly work alongside and with Māori when involved in impact assessments of a project. This kōrero is about understanding approaches to cultural impact assessments and how this may lead to better environmental outcomes.
