

are pleased to present the 2019 Environmental Practitioner's Forum

Sharing Experiences in Environmental Practice

24 May 2019

Leederville Function Centre
Leederville Oval, 246 Vincent Street Leederville

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

This event aims to be of interest to the entire environmental practitioner community including students, community conservation and landcare groups, professionals from all industries, regulators, local government and the public sector.

All Topics will be Considered and May Include

- 🌐 Waste and contamination
- 🌐 Sustainable development and rating schemes
- 🌐 Climate Change—impacts, adaptation, and where to now
- 🌐 Citizen science and community involvement in environmental initiatives
- 🌐 Community engagement, transparency and right to know
- 🌐 Limitations and solutions in environmental risk assessment
- 🌐 Legislation, Regulation, Policy and Planning
- 🌐 Asset Decommissioning and Closure
- 🌐 Biodiversity, restoration, rehabilitation and offsetting
- 🌐 Integrated Resource Management (inc Traditional Land Management)
- 🌐 Solutions to environmental problems—simple to technological advancement
- 🌐 Industry (Agribusiness, Fisheries, Renewable Energy, Mining, Transport, Water)

Submissions Open 1 November 2018—31 January 2019

Email abstracts (max 200 words) to epnwaworkshop@gmail.com

Please share with anyone who may be interested