

Environment Institute of Australia and
New Zealand Inc.

What's new for the NT in environmental impact assessment?

Presented by:

Paul Purdon, Executive Director Environment Protection

Lisa Bradley, Director Environmental Assessment
Department of Environment and Natural Resources

When: Thursday 13 August 2020

Time: 4:00pm to 5:00pm

Where: Theatrette, Museum and Art Gallery of the NT
19 Conacher Street, Fannie Bay.
Drinks afterwards at the Ski Club

Zoom option: We are adhering to the strict guidelines around COVID-19. Due to limits placed on indoor events in the NT we are also running this event via a Zoom Meeting. Please choose your preference attendance method in the registration process.

Cost: Free

RSVP: <https://www.eianz.org/events/event/nt-whats-new-for-the-nt-in-environmental-impact-assessment>

ABOUT

The Environment Protection Act 2019 commenced on 28 June 2020, marking a new era in environmental impact assessment in the Northern Territory. Paul Purdon and Lisa Bradley will present:

- what's new for impact assessment in the NT
- how the roles and opportunities for participants in impact assessment have changed
- a go-to guide to resources for impact assessment participants

Paul Purdon is the Executive Director Environment Protection at the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR). Paul provides executive support by leading the Environment Protection functions of the NT Environment Protection Authority (NT EPA), including impact assessment; environmental authorisations and licensing and environmental compliance and regulation.

Lisa Bradley is the Director Environmental Assessment at DENR. Lisa leads the Environmental Assessments team to conduct the impact assessment functions of the NT EPA.