EVENT DETAILS

The EIANZ is hosting a networking event in the Illawarra where we will consider how to affect positive change while working in the environment industry. The objectives for the night are to:

- Connect like-minded individuals in our local area so we can help each other achieve improved environmental outcomes
- Hear from prominent individuals with a wealth of experience as environmental professionals
- Discuss our diverse and interesting careers in the environment industry
- Leave empowered with the knowledge that we have influence and an ability to voice and promote sustainable goals.
